KOLAR GOLD FIELDS SANITARY BOARD.
BYE-LAW X.

The following Bye-law to provide for the regulating and licensing of places and shops or stalls intended for the sale of meat, fish, vegetables, grain and other article of human consumption is passed under Section VI, cl: 4, of the Sanitary Rules framed under Section 24 of the Mysore Mines Regulation, Act III of 1897.

1. Any person making use of any place or building as a retail shop or stall for the sale, or store, or exposure for sale, of meat, poultry, fish, fruit, vegetables, grain, or other articles of human consumption, shall apply to the President for a license, which license shall be in force for the current official year in which it is granted, and must thereafter be renewed annually.

2. The President may at his discretion grant or refuse such license, provided that every order refusing such license shall be in writing, and shall state the ground or grounds for refusal.

Provided also that before grant of such license, where the shop, stall or place applied for is situated within the boundaries of any Mining Company, the President shall refer the application to the Chief Medical Officer, Mining Board, for his opinion, and that if he condemns such shop, stall or premises as unsuitable, the license shall be refused, and that if any shop, stall or premises licensed under this Bye-law becomes in the opinion of the Chief Medical Officer, or President, unsuited for the purpose for which it was licensed, the President may, at his discretion, cancel the license, or suspend it until the place has, in his opinion, been made suitable for the said purpose.

3. Applications for licenses for existing shops, stalls or premises must be made within one month from the date of the promulgation of this Bye-law.

4. Applications for renewal of licenses must be made to the President before the end of the first month of each official year, i. e., before the end of July in each year.

5. The following fees per annum shall be charged for licenses granted under this Bye-law, viz.:—

		Rs.	a.	p.

Do	vegetables	1	0	0	do
Do	fruit	1	0	0	do
Do	grain & other articles of human consumption.	1	0	0	do

6. Whoever, without first obtaining a license from the President under Section 1 of this Bye-law, uses any place, shop, stall, or premises, not being a licensed market or stall for the sale of any meat, fish, vegetables, fruit, grain or other article of human consumption, shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and to a further fine which may extend to Rs. 2 for every day after such conviction during which he continues using it, and in default of payment, to such imprisonment as is lawful under Sections 66 and 67 of the Indian Penal Code.

7. Every license granted under this Bye-law shall be in the following form and subject to the conditions attached thereto.

8. The President may at his discretion delegate all, or any, of the powers conferred on him by this Bye-law to the Vice-President.

LICENSE FORM.

..... son of ..... is hereby granted a license to keep a shop or stall for the sale of..... at ..... subject to the following conditions, viz:—

1. That such shop or stall, or premises shall at all times be open to free access for inspection by any member or Sanitary Officer of the Board, and its license always available, on demand, for his inspection.

2. That the license shall not sell, or offer for sale therein, the flesh of any animal that has not been slaughtered in a licensed slaughter house.

3. That the licensee shall not sell or offer for sale therein any meat, fish, poultry, fruit, vegetables, grain or other article intended for human consumption, which is, in the opinion of the Chief Medical Officer or of an Officer of the Sanitary Board not lower than the Sanitary Inspector, unfit for that purpose.

4. That the licensee shall keep the shop, or stall, and its premises, in a clean and sanitary condition, and shall at once obey any order in respect of the cleaning or sanitation thereof, which may be given him in writing, signed by the President, or, such other officer as may be deputed by him in this behalf.

5. That the licensee shall keep in his shop or stall true scales and correct standard weights.

6. That a breach of any of the above conditions by the licensee, or his servants, shall render the licensee liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding Rs. 20, and if the offence be continued, to a further fine of Rs. 2 for every day of such continuance, and, in default of payment, to such imprisonment as may be lawful under Sections 66 and 67, Indian Penal Code. Breach of any of the above conditions shall also render the licensee liable to the cancellation of his license at the option of the President.
